IMPORTANT INFORMATION

PASSPORT INFORMATION

Disney Cruise Line® will deny boarding to Guests without proper documentation.

Travel documentation requirements can vary greatly based on which Disney cruise you have selected to enjoy, and also on your country of citizenship.

All United States citizens must provide proof of U.S. citizenship for cruises that originate from, or travel to, a U.S. port. Please refer to the "Embarkation Information" section or visit the Planning Center online at disneycruise.com/plan for detailed requirements. You may also visit the U.S. Department of State website at travel.state.gov or call the U.S. National Passport Information Center at 1-877-4USA-PPT for the most current requirements.

For our non-U.S. Guests, please refer to your local government agency for specific travel documentation requirements for your cruise vacation or visit the Planning Center online at disneycruise.com/plan.

VACATION CHECKLIST

VACATION CHECKLIST

Your Disney cruise is right on the horizon. In all the excitement, it's easy to let a few things slip by. Here's a handy checklist of things you need to remember:

RIGHT NOW:

☐ Review This Booklet

We know we're repeating ourselves, but please be sure to read this entire booklet and review the information. If you have any questions, just call 1-866-DCL-6685 (325-6685) or (407) 566-7797.

Hours of Operation: Monday – Friday 8 am to 10 pm EST
Saturday and Sunday 9 am to 8 pm EST

☐ Complete Your Cruise Documents & Forms

You've already completed your documents online. Please remember to print and sign any online documents and bring with you in order to sail.

☐ Planning Center

Be sure to visit the Planning Center online at disneycruise.com/plan to add cruise activities such as Port Adventures, adult-exclusive dining or spa reservations and much, much more.

BEFORE YOU LEAVE HOME:

☐ Leave our ships' contact number (1-888-DC-AT-SEA or 732-335-3281 if calling from outside the U.S.) with a family member or friend in case they need to reach you onboard. A fee will apply. There are tear-out cards in the "Important Extras" section of this booklet.

☐ Pack a day bag. Cruise documents. Passports/Official IDs. A change of clothes. Swimsuit. Valuables. Medicine. Anything you might need that first day so that you don't have to wait for your checked luggage to arrive in your stateroom, which could be up to a few hours after sail away.

☐ Double check your bags. Sunscreen? Hats? Glasses? Cameras? Batteries? Shoes? Medications?

VACATION CHECKLIST (CON'T)

☐ International Travelers. It is important to keep your original passport with you as you travel and helpful to bring photocopies, as well as pack one photocopy in each piece of luggage.

ABOUT YOUR LUGGAGE TAGS:

Since you haven't included ground transfers in your plans so far, place your luggage tags on your bags before you check in for your flight or arrive at the Port of Galveston cruise terminal.

CHECK IN FOR YOUR VOYAGE:

To check in for your Disney cruise please bring your travel documentation and passport (see "Embarkation Information" section for other forms of valid identification) and proceed to the cruise terminal at Port of Galveston. Details and directions can be found at the back of this booklet.

BEFORE YOU GET TO PORT OF GALVESTON:

☐ Make sure you keep this booklet with all your cruise documents and all photo IDs and passports easily accessible. You'll need to show these a couple of times.

☐ Arrive on time. As part of the My Online Check-In, you will be asked to select a Port Arrival Time. Please arrive at the appointed time for entry into the terminal building. Guests arriving early may be asked to wait until their scheduled time. Boarding usually starts around 1:00 pm and everyone has to be onboard by 3:30 pm.

☐ Should travel delays occur, please contact us at 1-800-395-9374 while in the U.S. or at 00-800-8719-0466 outside of the U.S.

BEFORE YOU GO . . .

Packing Tips. Bathing suit and cover-up, T-shirts, shorts, pants, sundresses, sandals and sneakers, a light jacket or sweater, dinner attire and pirate garb for most voyages. Also, don't forget other items you may need – camera, binoculars, sunscreen, hat, etc. Visit disneycruise.com/plan for special events that may be happening on your voyage!

VACATION CHECKLIST (CON'T)

Dining dress requirements vary by venue or theme night on your cruise. In general, Cruise Casual is standard attire; however, most cruises also have special theme nights and, depending on the length of your cruise, a Dress Up night and/or Formal or Semi-Formal night(s). Suggested dress options are below or visit disneycruise.com/plan for more details:

- Cruise Casual – no shorts, swimwear or tank tops
- Pirate or Tropical Night (on most cruises)
- Dress Up – jacket for men, dress or pantsuit for women
- Semi-Formal – suit/jacket for men; dress or pantsuit for women
- Formal – tuxedo or suit for men; gown or dress for women

For our adult-exclusive restaurant(s), dress code requirements are:

Palo – shirt or jacket for men with dress pants; dress or pantsuit for women. Please, no jeans, shorts, capri pants, flip flops or tennis shoes.

What Not To Pack. Firearms and ammunition, any kind of knives, swords, daggers, bullwhips or any other types of weapons are prohibited. Please also do not bring homemade, precooked or other perishable items, irons, bottle warmers, sporting equipment, balloons, candles, musical instruments, illegal drugs inclusive of medically prescribed and synthetic marijuana and coolers (except for those carrying medications, baby food or items related to dietary constraints).

Review our Alcohol Policy. Please be sure to review our full alcohol policy at disneycruise.com. A limited quantity of alcohol is allowed per guest (21 years of age and older) in carry-on bags only.

International Travelers. It's important to keep your original passport with you as you travel, and helpful to bring photocopies, as well as pack a copy in each piece of luggage.

Youth Activities. Onboard Youth Activity spaces are reserved exclusively for guests three to seventeen years of age. Guests eighteen years of age and older are invited to participate in our adult-only activities and spaces.

VACATION CHECKLIST (CON'T)

Shopping! Our new online store allows you to shop from home! Go to disneycruise.com/store to view Disney Cruise Line® merchandise available for home delivery. If you're looking for items to be delivered while onboard, we also offer a variety of in-room gifts, floral arrangements and more. Visit disneycruise.com/plan and select "In-Room Gifts & Shopping".

AS SOON AS YOU'RE ON THE SHIP:

- ☐ Relax. You're on vacation.

VACATION
OVERVIEW

EMBARKATION INFORMATION

The following guidelines are based on government regulations, which are subject to change at any time. It is your responsibility to check with your travel agent, government agency, embassy or consulate to ensure that you have all the proper documentation to board the ship and enter each of the countries on the ship's itinerary. If you're visiting any country other than the U.S., remember to contact the consulate of that country to ensure you have the documentation required to visit. Travelers can visit the U.S. State Department's website at http://travel.state.gov. Guests without proper citizenship documentation and those arriving after 3:30 pm will be denied boarding.

The following information pertains to all Guests, including children, who board a cruise ship within the U.S., travel only within the Western Hemisphere, and return to the same U.S. port on the same ship.

Required Documentation for U.S. Citizens

All Guests claiming U.S. citizenship must present one of the following as proof of U.S. citizenship:

- Valid U.S. Passport
- Valid U.S. Passport Card
- Valid state-issued Enhanced Driver's License – this is a special type of license that provides proof of identity and U.S. citizenship; not all states offer Enhanced Driver's Licenses – visit http://www.getyouhome.gov for the most up to date list of participating states
- Valid Trusted Traveler card (NEXUS, SENTRI, FAST)
- Government-issued photo ID, along with one of the following:
  - Original or copy of their state issued birth certificate
  - Original Consular Report of Birth Abroad issued by the Department of State
  - Original Certificate of Naturalization issued by U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services
- Guests under the age of 16 may present one of the following:
  - Original or copy of their state issued birth certificate
  - Original Consular Report of Birth Abroad issued by the Department of State
  - Original Certificate of Naturalization issued by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

EMBARKATION INFORMATION (CON'T)

With the exception of the state issued birth certificate, photocopies of the above documents are not acceptable. Hospital issued birth certificates are not acceptable proof of U.S. citizenship for purposes of traveling outside of the U.S.

United States citizens can visit the State Department's travel website at http://travel.state.gov or call the United States National Passport Information Center at (877) 4USA-PPT (487-2778) for more information.

Required Documentation for U.S. Legal Permanent Residents

If you live and work in the U.S. and are a legal permanent resident of the U.S., you must provide a valid Legal Permanent Resident card, also known as a "Green Card" or "Alien Resident Card (ARC)".

Required Documentation for Canadian Citizens

All Guests claiming Canadian citizenship must present one of the following as proof of Canadian citizenship for each member of their party:

- Valid Canadian Passport
- Valid Canadian Enhanced Driver's License – this is a special type of license that provides proof of identity and Canadian citizenship; not all provinces offer Enhanced Driver's Licenses – visit http://www.getyouhome.gov for the most up to date list of participating provinces
- Valid Trusted Traveler card (NEXUS, SENTRI, FAST)

Photocopies of any of the above documents are not acceptable.

Required Documentation for Citizens of All Other Countries

In addition to a valid passport, many countries require an entry visa based on your nationality. It is each Guest's responsibility to identify and obtain all the necessary visas before commencing the cruise. Because requirements may vary, Guests are advised to contact their travel agent, government agency, embassy or consulate for more information on required travel documentation for the port of embarkation and all ports of call during the cruise.

Passports are required to re-enter the U.S. via air.

Please visit the Planning Center online at disneycruise.com/plan for additional details regarding travel documentation requirements.

EMBARKATION INFORMATION (CON'T)

If your country participates in the Visa Waiver Program, you are now required to have a valid machine-readable passport and obtain 72-hour advance travel authorization via the Electronic System for Travel Authorization (ESTA) prior to boarding carriers by air or sea to the U.S. under the Visa Waiver Program. For a list of applicable countries and registration requirements, ESTA information is accessible online at http://cbp.gov/travel. A copy of the approved ESTA application should be brought with you when traveling.

Port of Galveston address:
Port of Galveston
2702 Harborside Drive
Galveston, TX 77550

Parking is available adjacent to the cruise terminal and is operated by the Port of Galveston. Please refer to the "Driving Directions" section at disneycruise.com/plan for more details.

Remember: on the day of your sailing, all Guests must be aboard by 3:30 pm or you will not be able to sail.

Tip: Make checking in at the port even quicker by checking in now at disneycruise.com/plan.

Disney Cruise Line Data Protection Notice

Disney Cruise Line (DCL) will collect personal information in connection with your reservation, when you are onboard our ships (such as retail transactions), and at various cruise destinations.

Personal information includes name, address, email address, gender, image, citizenship, credit card number, as well as any other special information required to process your reservation effectively (including other guests subject to the same reservation) and to provide services while onboard our ships.

By making a booking, you consent to DCL processing information about you as set out in this Notice. This may include transferring information about you to third parties, who may be outside your country of residence, and may include the processing of 'sensitive' information. You are responsible for obtaining the consent of other guests in your party prior to submitting personal information to us about such other guests.

You are responsible for ensuring that information which DCL holds is up-to-date and accurate and to notify DCL of any changes.

Our Use of Your information

DCL may disclose this information to other parties such as travel agents, hotels, airlines and other transportation providers, credit and debit card companies, shipboard concessionaires, service providers, and any governmental or public authorities. For example, it may be mandatory (as required by government authorities) to disclose your information to immigration, border control, port agents, or for other purposes the government authorities consider appropriate.

Information may be shared with organizations in different countries with different levels of protection for personal information. These may be different from the laws of your country of residence (such as a country within the European Union) or the laws governing our use of your personal information.

All concessionaires and their employees operating on the DCL ships, including the fitness center, spa, hair salon, laundry, internet cafe, photo shop and medical clinic are independent contractors. Such service providers may collect additional information from you (such as health data for the medical clinic or spa) and such collection of information will be subject to their own privacy practices which are not under DCL's control. Where additional payment is required for such services, some information concerning the services provided may be disclosed to DCL to facilitate payment.

Marketing

We may inform you by mail or email/electronic communications (if you have provided us with appropriate permissions) of cruise, vacation, and other Disney-related products and services offered by DCL or its affiliates (such as Walt Disney World Resort, ABC or ESPN). We may also share your contact information with our affiliates, who may contact you directly for these purposes. Your information may also be used for market research purposes (including internal demographic studies) in order to provide, optimize and personalize our services.

If you want to opt out from receiving future marketing communications, or access information processed by DCL, please write to us at: Disney Cruise Line Guest Communications, PO Box 10238, Lake Buena Vista, Florida 32830-0238; or at DCL.Guest.Communications@disneycruise.com. Please provide your name, postal address and email address to assist us in dealing with your request.

Sensitive Information

You may provide additional information to us relating to special requirements you may have, such as requirements relating to health or dietary preferences. We will use this information to address your needs, or to ensure the safety and welfare of others on the ship. This information may be classed as 'sensitive'. The ship's medical staff or others may also collect sensitive information about you in circumstances where we need to act in your interest or on your behalf, in the interests of others, or in an emergency.
